We have to asknowledge receipt of the programme for the Hongkong Rack Meeting for 1882. The Challenge Cup; a forced entry, has a list of no less than 65 ponies. which looks well, and may secure large fields, if nothing else.

By Broad Arrow received by French mai to-day we observe that Lieutenant F. A. Newington, Royal Marine Light Infantry, obtained his captaincy on the 13th December last. > THE letter, which we reproduce in another column from the St. James's Budget of 23rd December, speaks for itself. Any comment thereon would be little else but a repetition of the grievances which we have endeavoured to express ever since Governor Hennessy began to develop his crooked policy, and which are fairly summarized by "H. H. N." That the "cry" will be answered is the carnest wish of nearly every resident of this Colony. One curious point about this development ois this, that the metropolitan journal which has been the first to take up the cry from Hongkong is one of the foremost Conservative organs of the country. This fact would seem to imply that both the great parties are beginning to be a little ashamed over the lengthened sufferings of Hongkong residents. Had the source of the cry been Liberal or Radical, some other explanation may have been possible than that of unbearable administration. The St. James's Gazette is a Conservative of Conservatives. At the same time, it is hard to say, in these. days of change, to what party Sir John Pope Hennessy would now attach himself in England, -or Ireland.

An Inquest, adjourned from Saturday, was resumed this afternoon (30th) before the Coroner, H. E. Wodehouse, Esq., and the following gentlemen as a jury: Messrs William Wilson, J. Y. Vernon Vernon, and A. A. da Cruz, touching the death of the child, which died in the Tung Wah Hospital on the 23rd instant. Dr Marques further stated to-day that the diseased condition of the spleen must have existed for some time previous to the alleged assault : and that the particular condition it was in was common in malarious districts. He considered that the pneumonia and condition of the spleen had been brought on by exposure to cold, and though death had not resulted from starvation, still the child had not received the nourishment necessary. Lai Lai Lam, doctor in the Tung Wah Hospital, whose especial duty was to attend to children and vaccinations, said the parents, on their first visit, were unable to express their want properly, as they spoke a different dialect from him. He understood them, however, by their actions to. mean to convey the impression that the child had been assaulted, and he referred them to another ward. He knew nothing more about what occurred that day, but the following day he took the child, which was suffering apparently from a very severe cold, its eyes being almost closed, and its throat being almost entirely choked with phlegm, into the Hospital. The child had great difficulty in breathing, and died that same night. He was unable to say what had been the cause of death This concluded the evidence, and the jury found that the evidence was not sufficient to prove that death had been accelerated by the fall. This therefore relieves the prisoners from the charge of manslaughter, but the charge of assault still remains against them; and they will be brought up on that charge to-morrow.

"Endymon" in the Queenslander writes as follows on the qualities of Sir Arthur Kennedy as a Governor !--

Everybody may be pardoned for feeling curious to know who will be Sir Arthur Kennedy's successor, and whether he will be a duke, a marquis, an earl, a baronet, a knight, a plain esquire, or a military officer. At any rate, we shall not got a better constitutional governor than Sir Arther Kennedy has proved, nor one who will set a better example of fragality and clean living. But we may be blessed with a far more popular governor, possibly. The shopkeepers tell us his present Excellency does not encourage trade by indulging, in frequent balls and other dressy entertainments. Society, too, somewhat resents Sir Arthur's prolonged seclusions at Toowoomba, and holds that were there more gaiety at Government House it would not be so difficult for match-making mammas to introduce their marriageable daughters to marrying mon. But the mass of the people, who don't get invitations to Govern ment. House, and who don't sell ducks of bon jets or silk dresses, are quite satisfied with Sir Arthur Kennedy's representation of her Majesty's dignity in this colony. Still. I admit that in governors, as well as in most other good things, an occasional change is expedient, and I am not at all disposed to quarrel with the rule which requires the Queen to send us a new represontative every five years. There is something flattering to most people's vanity in number, names, and characteristics of the governors they have known. It affords the opportunity for a gratifying extension of one's acquaintanceship with high person-It will be just five years next April since Sir Arthur Kennedy arrived at Brisbane, and I doubt if he has ever quite forgotten the inhospitality we were then guilty of in quarantining him for smallpox. The professional rudeness also which required his Excellency's lady companions to display their wagging little tongues was surely an affront not to be easily forgiven.

CONCERT AT THE CLUB GERMANIA The musical entertainment given on Saturday night at the German Club by the mentbers of that institution, though strictly speaking not a concert subject to public criticism, was one which it would be a pity to pass unnoticed. Our German friends are by far the most musical section of the community; and as they appear to devote more time and introduce a stricter system into their devotion to the art, they are always able to distinguish themselves at the shortest notice. These musical evenings are well known and highly appreciated; and if we are not mistaken, an additional interest was imported into that of Saturday last from the fact that it was so timed as to be a farewell to an amateur piano-performer the like of whom it may no be the good fortune of this Colony to see too many years. We refer, of course, to Mr Rennell of Canton, who has taken so deep an in terest in everything musical in Hongkong as well as in Shamien for the last few years. Mr Rennell left for Europe by the French Mail to-day, with many a sincere wish for his future prosperity and many regrets that he was thus depriving two communities of one of the musical treats of the season. The hall, or theatre; at the Club was filled with guests, amongst whom might have been observed - H. E. Sir John and Lady Hennessy, H. E. Lieut. General and Mrs Donovan, Admiral Duperrs, the Acting Chief Justice and Mrs Snowdon, a large number of naval, military and civil officers, and most of the leading evenings so liberally given by our German were most satisfactory. The Concert of Saturday was certainly the most attractive musical evening given in Hongkong for many years, and, as added Barrister at law, all of them good hinted, it having been got up in the short qualifications. Mr Rennell, in his performance of Recthoven's Sonata in C, displayed that clear intonation and brilliance of execution which are now so familiar to all, and which unquestionably rank this artist amongst the most highly talented pianists of the present day. His momory, too, would seem to be growing in proportion to the vigour and grace of his fingering, for he played through the Sonata in a faultless manner without the aid which the music usually supplies. Mr Rennell also accompanied throughout the evening, and elicited the admiration of all by his thoroughness and good taste. In the pianoforte duet with Dr Clouth, the two masters appeared for the last time together before a Hongkong audience, and the manner in which this piece was played tended, if possible, to d'epen the regret at the farewell character

The Lapiving, 3, gunvessel, Acting Commander F. H. Haygarth, from Hongkong, Aug. 12, arrived in Plymonth Sound on the 16th inst. via the Cape, and will probably proceed to Sheemess to-morrow to pay off. During her seven years' survice on the China Station the Lapuving has had some painful experiences. She was first conmissioned at Devenport in September, 1874, her then commander being Sir William Wiseman, Bart., and two years-after her arrival in the China sons had the misfortune to run ashore near Chefon, a violent gale heaving her right upon the beach. She was afterwards floated off. after everything had been cleared out of the vessel except her machinery, the success of the arrangements being mainly due to Mr Howard, the harbour master at Chefoo. The repairs to the Laplving were subsequently completed at Shanghai, in 1877. and the late Commander W. G. Scott, whose sad death we recently recorded. was appointed successor to Sir William Lapwing was re-commissioned at Hongkong, her subsequent duty being uneventful enough until she had the misfortune to ceme into collision with the Ho-chang. The Lameing arrived at Sheerness on the 20th inst., and was inspected next day by Captain J. D'Arcy. The commanding officer was complimented on the amartness of his crow and the general condition of his ship. Walker has been appointed Colonel of the She is to be dismantled and paid out of commission at Sheorness.

THE LOST BALLOON. The mahogany frame of a thormometer has been washed ashore at Chesil Cove, Portland, and there n Southern Dalmatia and seven thousand appears to be little doubt that it belonged to the missing balloon Saladin, which with Mr Walter Powell, M.P., was carried out to sea on the 9th inst. The instrument bore the name of its maker, who states that he sold several such to Captain Templer for aeronautic purposes. Captain Templer also recognised the instrument by the description forwarded to him : and lastly M Powell's brother and sister, who travelled to Weymouth to see the thermometer, have atorial Election is a Republican gain of arrived at the same conclusion. It may be assumed, therefore, that the thermometer is a relic of the balloon. The most obvious interpretation is that the balloon descended into the English Channel at once on quitting Bridport, that the unfortunate Mr Powel perished close to the Dorsetshire coast, and that the fragments of the balloon and its contents are now being drifted to land This is the most probable theory; but it is also possible that Mr Powell, finding the balloon sinking, may have thrown out the instruments to lighten the cargo. But in any case the hope of ultimately recovering Mr Powell alive has, we fear, become very slender.

Since the works in connection with the Channel Tunnel experiments were commenced at the new heading at Shakespeare's Cliff the operations have been so successful that the first quarter of a mile is now completed. What looks especially encouraging is that the engineers are able to gradually increase the rate of boring, which has attained the excellent average of thirty-six feet per day; and in addition to this the soil is now quite dry, there being a total shifts, but it is proposed shortly to have an Sir Henry Irving, the late Governor of extra shift, making eight hours each in Trinidad, and who at present holds no ap- order to explicite the work. THE CHINA REVIEW.

THE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style, but slightly modified in certain details,

THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East, is issued at intervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octavo pages, occasionally illustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, &c., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter. The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance. The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Customs, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, the Eastern Archipologo and the "Far East" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially. invited is incorporated with each mumber. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Porare admissible. Endageours are made to present a resume in each number of the contents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review department. Notes and Replies are classified together as "Notes" (head references being given, when furnished, to previous Notes or Queries), as are also those queries which though asking for information, furnish new or uppublished details concerning the matter in band. It is ilenirable to make the Queries proper as brief and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August, 1875, is at hand. It says that forty-two essays were sent in to compete for the best paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a State. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review. It is a sixty paged, bi-monthly, repertory of what scholara are ascertaining about China. The lecture on Chinose Poetry in this volume is alone worth the price of the fleview. Address Chista Review, Hongkong. - Northern Ohristian Advocate (U.S.) Trubner's Oriental Regard contains the following notice of the China Review : _ " This is the title of a publication, the first number of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been set on fact as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as In China. Thepresent publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bustowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of informstion, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the drat number of the Mericu by papers highly creditable, to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's She Aing, by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is deservedly givon, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese post-statusman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace, . Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of "the Review, M' carried out with punctuality and detail. we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that, this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure Its continuance. The publication is intend ed to appear every two months, and will

This paper is now issued every day. The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per annum delivered in Hongkong, or Seven Dollars Fifty Cents including postage to Coast ports. It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever

The projectors, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Perts in China and Japan,from Australia, California, Singapore, Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese, - consider themselves justified in guaranteeing an ultimate sirculation of between 3,000 and 4,000 cories. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great, and
